2017 Executive Education Programs

UCF

Offered in Downtown Orlando

Managing talent is vital to the overall success of any organization, and that is why UCF's cutting-edge executive education programs are designed to promote professional development and prepare your team for tomorrow's challenges. We will teach you to think differently, exchange ideas, and apply new techniques. Join us at our open-enrollment workshops in 2017 and enhance your business acumen.

February 15, 2017	Employee Relations and Conflict Resolution	Led by Keri Kozlowski, J.D.
March 21, 2017	Sport Business Analytics	Led by Keith Harrison, Ph.D. and Scott Bukstein, J.D.
April 12, 2017	Digital Marketing Strategies	Led by Carolyn Massiah, Ph.D.
May 17 & 18, 2017	Finance & Accounting for Non-Financial Managers	Led by Darryl Allen, Ph.D. and Paul Gregg, MSA
June 8 & 9, 2017	Strategic Leadership	Led by Robert Porter, Ph.D.
June 2017	Process Improvement	Led by Select Faculty and Industry Partners
July 2017	Management Development Program – Part 1 for New Managers	Led by Select Faculty and Industry Partners
August 16 & 17, 2017	Effective Negotiation	Led by Nasser Kutkut, Ph.D.
September 2017	Change Management	Led by Steven Whiting, Ph.D.
October 2017	Keys to Decision Making and Risk Management – a Models Based Approach	Led by Select Faculty and Industry Partners
October 2017	Project Management	Led by Select Faculty and Industry Partners
November 2017	Effective Communication During Difficult Situations	Led by Select Faculty and Industry Partners

Workshop Registration Fees:

$450 for a one-day program • $750 for a two-day program Registration fees include highly interactive sessions, daily breakfasts, lunches, refreshment breaks, adjacent parking downtown, all course materials, and a certificate of completion. Discounts for early registration, multiple attendees from the same organization, UCF Alumni, non-profits, and government organizations available. Inquire for details.

UCF Executive Development Center

business.ucf.edu/executive-education • 407-235-3901 • executiveeducation@ucf.edu