Financial Technology, or FinTech, is a fast-growing area focused on simplifying, improving and automating the delivery of financial services. To help prepare you for the future of finance, we're offering new minor and certificate programs in FinTech.<sup>1</sup>

REQUIREMENTS FOR CERTIFICATE

1. Get a B or better in FIN 3403 Business Finance, before Spring 2021.
2. Take ECO 4443 (Intro to Business Analytics for FinTech) in Fall 2020.<sup>2</sup>
3. Take FIN 4450 (Foundations of FinTech) in Spring 2021.
4. Take FIN 4451 (FinTech for Decision Makers) in Fall 2021.

REQUIREMENTS FOR MINOR

1. Successfully complete the Certificate requirements.
2. In addition to the requirements for the FinTech Certificate, you can get a Minor in FinTech with the first two computer science courses (COP 3223C or EGN 3211 and COP 3502).<sup>3</sup>

New Minor & Certificate: Open to Accounting, Economics & Finance Majors

We believe that the FinTech Certificate or the Minor in FinTech will broaden your options and make you a more competitive candidate in the job market.

Notably, this will be the first such program of its kind in the State of Florida and among the very first in the country.

Go Knights! Charge on! Go FinTech!

FOR MORE INFORMATION

For information about the program please contact Susan Wiesen, Administrator, Department of Finance, College of Business at Susan.Wiesen@ucf.edu or 407. 823.5756.

<sup>1</sup>FYI: The College of Engineering and Computer Science and the College of Business are partnering up for a Graduate Program in Financial Technology (a Master's of Science degree in FinTech with the acronym MSFT). The proposed starting date is Fall 2021.
